every bit of ground taken for Him.

through us to make a difference for His kingdom, and rejoicing in knowing that we have the resources of the Almighty God pouring in "Triumph in the Trenches" means seeing the bigger picture, works through us.

It's tough being in the trenches. We give everything we have, in less than ideal circumstances, often hidden from view, and we sometimes struggle to keep our heads up. We're aware of danger all around us so there's a constant need to be vigilant. Ministry is a battle...spiritual warfare. But remember, the most amazing part of being on the front lines of ministry is being able to see the victories first-hand. We're in the middle of the action, seeing God at work and celebrating what He is accomplishing as He Daring to Dream...

Last year we were encouraged to dream. This year we want to follow up on the stories of how your dreams are unfolding.

What's HAPPENING? Please fill us in. Did your children come back to the Lord? Have you started working with single moms? Have you received land for that ranch you've been dreaming of? Perhaps God has been opening doors for you to speak.

We invite you to submit your stories on-line at www.trainconference.com or use this form to write out your story and send it to TRAIN. On Saturday morning at TRAIN 2004, we'll share some of your stories.

Don't hold back, for your story has the power to encourage and mobilize the army of Christ into action.
